Metro: Metro recently started an express bus, the 5A, from Dulles to the Rosslyn Metro station. This bus runs approx. every 40 minutes on weekdays and every hour on the weekend. At Dulles, the Metro bus stops at the Ground Transportation Curb (Arrivals level, down the ramp). This express bus has limited stops and the fare is $3. By metro: Capitol Hill can be reached by subway. To get to the House Office Buildings, take the Yellow Line train towards Fort Totten and then transfer at L'Enfant Plaza to the Silver/Blue or Orange Line train towards Largo or New Carrollton, respectively. Exit at Capitol South, the station closest to the House office buildings. To get to the Senate Office Buildings, take the Yellow Line towards Fort Totten and transfer to the Red Line at Metro Center. Take the Red Line towards Glenmont, and then get off at the Union Station stop.

Getting around Capitol Hill

For all Capitol Hill office buildings, you will have to pass through security. Please do not carry any items that may be suspicious.

House Office Buildings are located south of the Capitol on Independence Avenue.

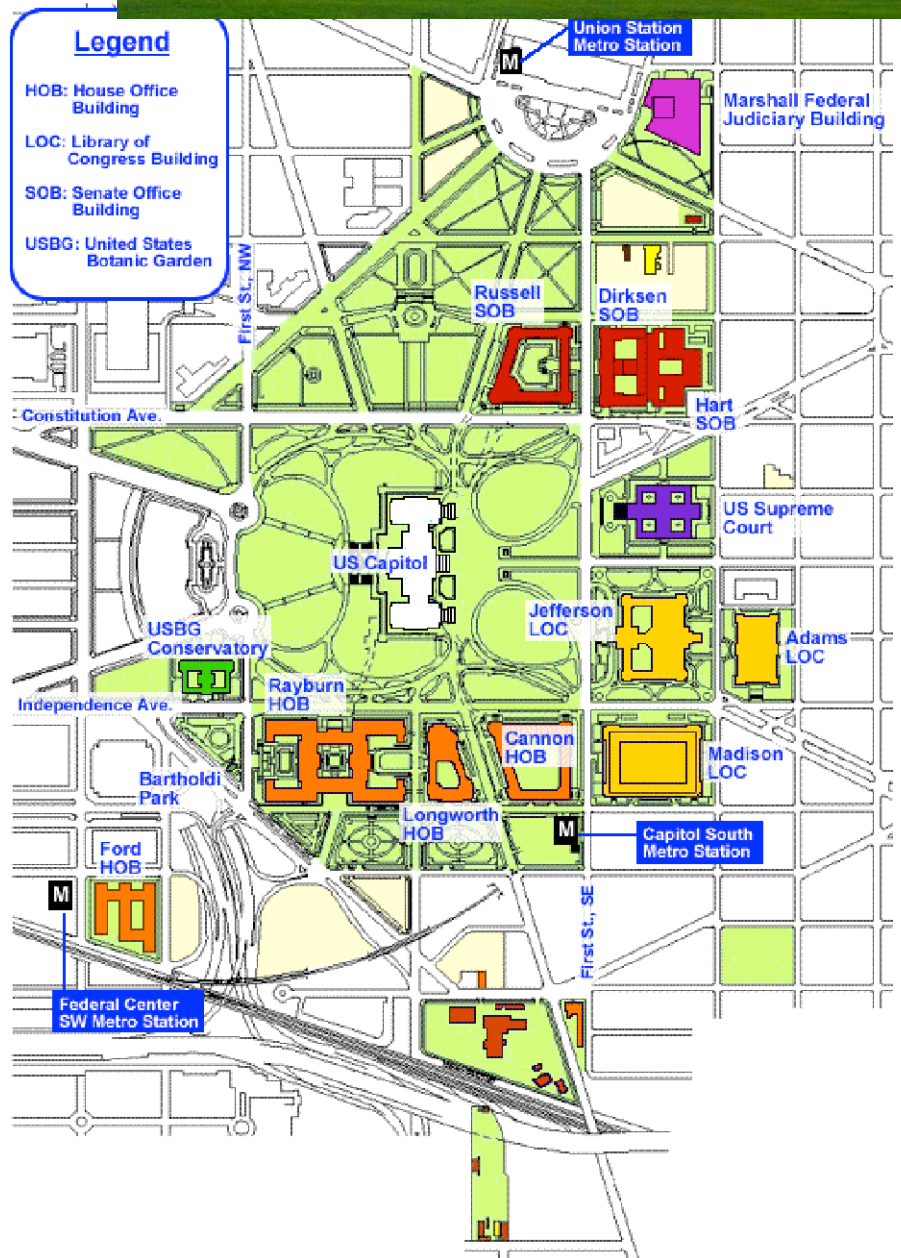

You can tell the building and floor by its room number:

Any three-digit room number can be found in Cannon House Office Building (CHOB); the first digit indicates the floor. Four-digit room numbers beginning with "1" are in Longworth House Office Building (LHOB). Four digit room numbers beginning with "2" are in Rayburn House Office Building (RHOB). In these two buildings the second digit indicates the floor.

Examples:

327 CHOB = third floor Cannon
2449 RHOB = fourth floor Rayburn

Senate Office Buildings are located on the north side of the Capitol on Constitution Avenue. In all buildings, the first digit indicates the floor. The three Senate Office Buildings are Dirksen, Hart and Russell.
