

Transportation

Getting to and from the hotel and Capitol Hill

To the Arlington Hyatt from Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport (DCA):

Taxis: Taxi stands are located in Arrivals near baggage claims in each terminal. See a uniformed taxi dispatcher. Fare to our hotel near Washington DC metro will be approximately $10.

Metro rail: Take the Metro Blue Line in the direction towards Largo, exit at the Rosslyn Stop. After exiting go up to the top level of the station, exit by the stairway to the right and the Arlington Hyatt is across the street.

To the Arlington Hyatt from Washington Dulles International Airport (IAD):

Taxis: Taxi stands are located in Arrivals near baggage claims in each terminal. See a uniformed taxi dispatcher. Washington Flyer serves Dulles Airport. Fare will be approximately $50 - $60.

Metrobus: Metro recently started an express bus, the 5A, from Dulles to the Rosslyn Metro station (and then on to L'Enfant station.) This bus runs approx. every 40 minutes on weekdays and every hour on the weekend. At Dulles, the Metro bus stops at the Ground Transportation Curb (Arrivals level, down the ramp). This express bus has limited stops and the fare is $3. You will want exact change (coins or bills), as the driver cannot provide change.

To Capitol Hill:

By taxi: Most taxi drivers know where the congressional office buildings are. Simply tell the driver which building you want to visit.

By metro: Capitol Hill can be reached by subway. To get to the House Office Buildings, take the Orange Line train towards New Carrollton or a Blue Line train towards Largo. Exit at Capitol South, the station closest to the House office buildings. To get to the Senate Office Buildings, take the Orange or Blue Line and transfer to the Red Line at Metro Center. Take the Red Line towards Glenmont, and then get off at the Union Station stop.

If you have questions, station attendants at each entrance can assist you.

Getting around Capitol Hill

For all Capitol Hill office buildings, you will have to pass through security. Don't carry any items (even a pocket knife) that may be suspect.

House Office Buildings are located south of the Capitol on Independence Avenue.

You can tell the building and floor by its room number:

Any three-digit room number can be found in Cannon House Office Building (CHOB); the first digit indicates the floor. Four-digit room numbers beginning with "1" are in Longworth House Office Building (LHOB). Four digit room numbers beginning with "2" are in Rayburn House Office Building (RHOB). In these two buildings the second digit indicates the floor.

Examples:

327 CHOB = third floor Cannon
2449 RHOB = fourth floor Rayburn

Senate Office Buildings are located on the north side of the Capitol on Constitution Avenue. In all buildings, the first digit indicates the floor. The three Senate Office Buildings are Dirksen, Hart and Russell.
